

that the lid is off on account of election time. For that reason a general investigation is being made along with Hogan's action.

Investigators are visiting certain districts on the south, north and west sides where complaints have been made that young girls are frequenting saloons and hotels. Evidence that is verified will be presented to the present grand jury.

THOUSANDS OF PAINTERS LAY DOWN TOOLS TODAY

Thousands of painters laid down their tools today. Employers who are members of the Decorators' and Painters' club would not accept the agreement the painters offered, so the painters struck in self defense against the damage the universal agreement the club wanted would do.

The Building Construction Employers' ass'n yesterday flatly rejected the offer by five unions of a compromise agreement.

When a man enters a three-cornered scrap as a peacemaker and comes out still in possession of the good will of each antagonist that man qualifies as a master diplomat.

Samuel Gompers has done just this in Chicago in the past two weeks. He tossed off his coat and plunged into the row between the two building trades factions and the employers.

Gompers did not gain peace, but he compelled a sane discussion of the issue and he saw to it that men of all sides said what they wanted.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

Pendleton, Ore., April 1. — Dark days are looming up for France. "Cyrus Noble," unbusted broncho of the Eastern Oregon plains, has just been sold to the French government as a cavalry charger. For three years visitors to the Pendleton "Roundup" have watched the world's most skillful riders try to conquer Cyrus. Every one was hurled skyward, recovering consciousness with a "never again" vow on his lips.

DUNNING GUARDS ARRESTED ON PATIENT'S CHARGES

Four guards at the Dunning state hospital are under arrest, charged with beating up two patients because one of them disturbed the slumbers of the guards who should have been on duty. Michael Petrick and Michael Kozar, patients, are in the hospital. Chas. Carney, O. A. Sidener, Otto Pierce and Harry Richardson are under arrest.

SWEITZER LITERATURE

Sweitzer literature coming out thick today.

Thousands of circulars issued under letterhead of the joint council of the teamsters saying they had investigated the charge that Sweitzer drove a wagon for the Farwell Co. during the teamsters' strike of 1905 and found the charges were untrue.

Another circular issued by the Liquor Dealers' Protective ass'n urges all members to aid Sweitzer's candidacy in every way possible

INDISPUTABLE

"What are you standing here for?"

"I'm waiting for a car."

"But there won't be any more cars till morning."

"Then there's all the more reason to be standing here, isn't there?"
